Voice Recording Guidelines

A Quick Reference Guide

All CICA LIFE OF AMERICA applications completed over the phone must be on a recorded line.

A voice signature is mandatory for the application and all other forms submitted via telephone. It represents your signature and is as legally binding as your actual signature.

Upon completion of the application, agents must upload the call recording to their agency.

Reminder

Before completing the e-app, read this statement exactly as written in its entirety.

“ We will telephonically complete this application and all other forms, including a voice signature.

A voice signature represents your signature, provides the same legal and binding effect as your physical signature, and will become part of your application.”

NOTE: At the beginning of the appointment, the agent must ask, and record the client's agreement to the following steps in this guide.

Important Notes

- All applications must be completed through the CICA LIFE OF AMERICA e-app.
- All questions in the e-app must be asked exactly as written.
- Clients must provide a clear “yes” or “no” response to each question before the agent can move on to the next question.
- Pre-recorded HIPAA authorization is only available on Standard Issue products.
- The application recording ID is either:
 - Insured's 10-digit phone number and date of application
 - Or a valid voice recording ID from a voice recording device
- Not three-digit HIPAA code

FOR ALL PRODUCT TYPES

Do you agree to CICA Life Insurance Company of America accepting your signature electronically through voice recording? Do you understand that by stating 'yes', you are signing the application electronically as if you had signed a paper application?

Standard Issue

Agents must obtain a HIPAA disclosure and authorization. A pre-recorded authorization is completed after the medical questions.

Agents can obtain consent via text*, email* or voice through a pre-recording statement.

For voice authorizations, before playing the pre-recorded statement agents must read the following in its entirety.

“ To complete the life application, I need your verbal consent to obtain your medical information. To do so, I will make a conference call using a recording system that will provide the HIPAA authorization. ”

Conference in the pre-recorded statement, obtain the three-digit code from the beginning of the call.

Save the code, but do not continue to next steps until after disconnecting the HIPAA statement.

Play the pre-recorded statement.

Applicant must provide clear verbal consent.

Before disconnecting call and moving to next steps applicant must provide their full name and complete physical address.

Disconnect from the recording, and validate the recording code.

Mark yes to the applicant agreeing to the HIPAA authorization.
